Sisters of St. Joseph of Tarbes

Dr. Sr. Elizabeth C S
Principal, Jyoti Nivas College Autonomous

Our Beginning... 'From the plough to the stars'

Way back in 1843 six young peasant girls in the little village of Tarbes in France were divinely inspired to a life of contemplation and prayer. The Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Tarbes was thus born.

From contemplation to communion to community building - a process of sensitization to the needs of suffering humanity and an answer to the call to care for the sick and the abandoned - the Sisters responded to the challenge with generosity and commitment. Education soon became another field in which they were called to serve - schools and later, colleges, grew out of their timeless efforts. One of the many renowned educational institutions that their Labour of love gave birth to was Jyoti Nivas Degree College, established in 1966. It has grown through the years, on the faith, courage and optimism of its founders. From those humble beginnings in the fields of Tarbes in France to the pinnacle of distinction in Bangalore, India, it has truly been a journey to the stars.

Today the college ranks among the premier women's institutions in the State and in the country. Affiliated to Bangalore University, it was conferred with a five-star status by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council in 1998. In 2004 it was granted autonomous status and recognized as a College with Potential for Excellence by the University Grants Commission. In 2005, it was accredited with 'A' grade in second cycle of the re-accreditation by NAAC and a High Cumulative Grade Point Average of 3.76 on scale of 4.0 in 2012 in the third cycle of re-accreditation by NAAC. In recognition of its merit and achievements, Jyoti Nivas was conferred with the title of College of Excellence by UGC in 2014.

CARRYING OUT THE CREDO

As a Christian college for women, challenged by revolutionary changes in every sphere of life, Jyoti Nivas College is aware that higher education involves infinitely more than the acquisition of mere qualification.

While providing our students with the higher quality of academic instruction and state of the art infrastructure which keeps abreast of the latest in science and technology, we also lay emphasis on the formation of the personal conscience, on the development of a strong code of ethics and values as well as an openness of mind which hungers to know and to learn from “the best that is known and taught in the world.”

Our faculty members possess not only fine minds and scholarly expertise, but also a strong commitment to teaching as a vocation, while employing the best of innovative methods and technology in their teaching practice. The Mentor-Ward system, one of the most outstanding practices of this institution, promotes and sustains a strong one-on-one interaction between teachers and students in an atmosphere of care and concern.

OUR CAMPUS CULTURE

We strive to create an atmosphere in which our students grow and develop as multi-faceted individuals while imbibing a strong national sense that transcends the barriers of religion and community, and seeks to uphold the best and most beautiful aspects of our Indian tradition and heritage. We also strive to inculcate in them a world view which will equip them for global citizenship and competence.
